Vol. 32.

Marble Hill, Missouri, Thursday, March 6, 1913.

No. 44.

Every page of The St. Louis Star, in its Daily, Sunday and Weekly editions, carries the message of honesty, independence. It is a clean, wholesome fighting newspaper that stands for decency in government, creature comforts and wage benefits for the men, women and children who work. It is a newspaper unafraid, that fights the people's battles and is never muzzled or intimidated. All over the Southwest that is what newspaper readers say about the

St. Louis Star

The news of the World, the State, the City and the Southwest Empire is in The Star every day. The news of the financial, grain and produce markets is exceptionally fine.

Any present reader of The Star will tell you that it is always able and reliable in every way. Begin reading The Star yourself and find out. By mail the Daily edition is $3.60 a year. The Sunday edition is $2.00. The Wednesday once-a-week edition is 50 cents. The Star also makes clubbing rates with newspapers in other Missouri cities. It will make you a rate with this newspaper -your own home newspaper. It is your first duty to reed your home newspaper and after that you should subscribe for The St. Louis Star.
